

Listen to the best the Nashville area has to offer with the "Local Buzz Cut" of the week every weekday at 2pm. This week's pick (11/23/20 to 11/27/20): Sugar In The Gas Tank "Bye"

Sugar in the Gas Tank is a four piece band giving a new take on the Alternative/Pop Punk music scene of the early 2000s. We pride ourselves on giving a very lively and engaging performance.

The band based out of Belmont University was created by Luke Dapuzzo (Vocals and Guitar) in the fall of 2019. Later on Reese Marshall (Drums), CJ Christianson (Guitar), and Jake Steven James (Bass) joined to help make Sugar in the Gas Tank what it is today.
